2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Monastery NS is a Catholic all boys primary school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Archbishop of Armagh. From September 2023 parents have the option of enrolling boys and girls in Junior and Senior Infants in our school (subject to the availability of places) growing year on year to become a complete vertical co-educational school (Junior Infants to 6th class) by September 2029. "Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and

(d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Monastery NS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Monastery National School Mission Statement

Monastery National School seeks to enable each child to develop his/her potential in a caring environment where the talents of each child are nurtured and valued.

The philosophy of the school is symbolised in the school crest. The four quadrants of the crest symbolise aspects of the pupils' development – intellectual, spiritual, physical and artistic. Although identified separately, they are recognised as integral parts of the pupil.

Each pupil is accepted as unique, bringing with him to school his own individual personality and his talents in varying degrees of ability. The school also recognises that each child comes from a unique home and family background and that conditions there may profoundly affect him/her and impinge upon his/her personal development.

The school motto, incorporated in the crest, is "Mol an Óige agus Tiocfaidh sí" (Praise youth and it will flourish). This focuses attention on the pupil in an encouraging and positive way. The school exists for the benefit of the pupil and seeks to positively influence his/her growth through encouragement, stimulation and by immersing him/her in a committed positive school culture.

The school seeks to create a positive and respectful culture which encourages growth and development – spiritual, intellectual, artistic and physical – with due regard for the individual child.
